Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

"The Eucharistic Heart in the Host draws me more and more. If I merely pass near the chapel, I feel an irresistible force inviting me in. Close to the tabernacle, I experience an indefinable joy. When the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, I feel totally taken over, paralyzed, by this gentle Eucharistic Heart. When I leave the chapel, I have to tear myself away from the divine Prisoner. Yet, I never cease to live in him, all this takes place in the Heart of the Most Blessed Trinity, an immense distance from the earth, but Jesus wants me to enjoy him in his Eucharist, and to grieve when I am far from his consecrated Host."

- Blessed Dina Belanger

 Technically Greeters are not a liturgical ministry. Yet they serve an important function for the good of the church. Most people understand the role of the Greeter as someone who brings a welcoming and friendly presence for those who are coming for Mass. This is true, but they do more than that. In addition to welcoming people, Greeters also assist the priest by helping people with basic needs like finding the bathroom. Yet, the more important role of the Greeter is to welcome those who have not been to a church for a while. If you have not attended a church or not been to Mass for a long time, the cold, sterile feeling of walking into a silent place can be unnerving. The Greeter's main role is to make a welcoming atmosphere so that everyone feels comfortable and welcome in our church.

We are looking for more greeters, lectors and money counters. If you're interested please contact the parish office.
