All-male priesthood

What do we do?

The saddest part of the debate over the priesthood in our modern times is that it turned the people of the church away from their responsibilities towards the church. We spend so much time and energy frustrated that the Church does not adapt to our beliefs and desires that we end up hurting the church through our resentments. Nothing shows this pain more than the current priest shortage. What caused the priest shortage? Decades of members of the church deciding to stop promoting vocations to the priesthood. Since the 2nd Vatican Council, many within the church simply believed that there would always be priests or that we can await the time in which the church “updates” to our modern views of the world. This clearly didn’t happen and now we are in a great struggle. So, what do we do?

Supporting priests and the priesthood

The Church’s stance on an all-male celibate priesthood is not going to change but our attitude can. Where do priests come from? They come from our families. Good, strong Catholic families know this reality. They know they need to support vocations to the priesthood in their families. Every time we have a new vocation to the priesthood that means that a mother gave up her hopes for grandchildren from her son and gave her son to the church. Each new vocation comes from our families. Without the support of families to provide new priests, we won’t have any priests and more churches will close for lack of priests. We need to change our attitude both to our families and the priesthood. Anyone is who currently not willing to either support young men in discerning the priesthood, all young in discerning a vocation, supporting seminarians, or supporting families in the church want the church to die. We should not be surprised that parishes with Adoration, strong Catholic families, parishioners who support vocations, and who emphasize discernment also have vocations to the priesthood coming from their parishes. This is our role. Our role is to support vocations to the priesthood.

We need a revival in our understanding of the Church

Let’s me make my point clear: the Church has not changed nor is it going to change. What has changed is our attitude towards the Church. Prior to our modern age, it was very common to have many groups within our churches that would support charitable causes, have small groups, or groups who assisted with the work of the church. Many of these groups are gone because we focus on our own lives and our “essential” needs. If we want a revival in the church, it starts with a revival in our understanding of our role as church. The ideal vision of the church is that the pastor works together with his people to build up the kingdom of God in their place. The priest and the people work as a unit who understand the essential mission of the church and orient their efforts to the same direction. This is not a fictious idea; this is the model of the Church. It is time for us to reclaim our identity and build this vision anew. We need a revival in our churches.

Parish potlucks

Every 4th Sunday of the month we have a parish potluck where anyone can bring a dish or come down and enjoy some good food. As part of the desire for the circles to be more active in the parish, I am assigning a circle to each potluck as the point group for the potluck. Their responsibility is to set-up, clean-up, and help make sure there is enough food. Anyone is welcome to bring food and help. The circle's responsibility is to facilitate the potluck. If you have any concerns or questions, please contact Fr. Cody.

HABEMUS PAPAM

The Annual Catholic Appeal kicks off this weekend. Our goal is to raise $21,900. Many people are unsure of the value and importance of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Let me guide you to understand the importance of this appeal using the new image on the poster. To maintain the function of the church, we have three parts that need support. The parishes are an essential part of the church. Through the parishes, the people come to know God, desire to follow him, receive the Sacraments, and have a place to live their lives of faith. Yet, parishes cannot sustain themselves. They need support from the Diocese for administrative needs, clergy, and to connect them to the larger church as a reminder that we are part of Jesus' Church not our own. The Annual Catholic Appeal supports the education of priests, the ministries of the Diocese, administrative help to the parishes, and maintains our Catholic identity. Another aspect of the Church is the global aspect. We are not just a group of churches in Montana but part of the global Catholic Church. Recognizing our identity through these three aspects is necessary for understanding who we are. When all three of these aspects of the Church are understood, supported, and lived out, then we can understand who we are and our role in the Church of Jesus. We have currently reached 35% of our parish goal, with $14,175 to go!

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

"Like Mary, let us be full of zeal to go in haste to give Jesus to others. She was full of grace when, at the annunciation, she received Jesus. Like her, we too become full of grace every time we receive Holy Communion. It is the same Jesus whom she received and whom we receive at Mass. As soon as we receive Jesus in Holy Communion, let us go in haste to give Him to our sisters, to our poor, to the sick, to the dying, to the lepers, to the unwanted, and the unloved. By this we make Jesus present in the world today."

- Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta
